NEWS RELEASE

Chill Out at the 2009 Ice Cream Safari
*Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo® Event in Nineteenth Year

Omaha, Neb. – (May 22, 2009) What's better on a hot July day than all-you-can-eat ice cream? Enjoy after hours fun during the 19th Annual Ice Cream Safari at Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo on July 21st from 5:30 – 7:30 pm. Check out a special polar bear feeding, make fun milk drinks, get your face painted, be entertained by Topper the Clown, watch cooking demos, and have your photo taken with a milk mustache all for the special admission of four dollars for adults and three dollars for children. Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo members receive one dollar off admission. Ice Cream Safari is a very popular annual event brought to you by Nebraska's Dairy Farmers, Meadow Gold Dairy, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo and American Dairy Association & Dairy Council of Nebraska.

The American Dairy Association & Dairy Council of Nebraska contributes to optimal health through leadership in nutrition research and education by encouraging food selection patterns that include dairy foods and other major food categories in accordance with scientific recommendations. The organization also performs public relations and retail promotions on behalf of Nebraska dairy producers. For more information, visit www.nebmilk.org.
